Days will be filled with demonstrations, tutorials, one-to-one tuition, critiques, and painting on location. The courses are centred around comfortable studios in beautiful places. We choose our painting locations with care and we will visit some of the most attractive, varied and appealing parts of the Cotswolds and Ireland. Judi is an inspirational tutor and will encourage you to find and develop your own style. A little painting experience is desirable to gain the most from the course.

The courses start with an introduction from Judi, and an opportunity to meet each other and to ask any questions. One afternoon during the week on the five day courses will be free – you can visit some of the local attractions, or just relax!

We will arrange to visit a convenient cafe or pub for lunch depending on the painting location, or advise if a packed lunch is required. In the evenings we hope to organise visits to attractive local pubs or restaurants if desired, where non-painting partners are encouraged to join us. The courses are non-residential so can you select from the many wonderful hotels and B&Bs available locally.

All activities and visits are optional, and we will do our best to accommodate your needs. The format of the courses is flexible so that we can take advantage of good weather to allow painting outdoors.
